RECIPE FOR UNICORN CAKE

Ingredients

- ★ 3 cups of all purpose flour
- ★ 30 gr of baking powder
- ★ 2 cups of sugar
- ★ 1 cup of natural yogurt
- ★ 1 cup of oil
- ★ 3 eggs
- ★ White fondant
- ★ Whipping cream
- ★ Food coloring
- ★ A pastry bag
- ★ And edible gold paint

Instructions

First mix all the dry ingredients.

Then mix 1 cup of yogurt 1 cup of oil and 3 eggs with the dry ingredients.

Mix well.

Put the batter in a big round baking mold.

Wait 40 min and check every 10 min.

When done, leave the cake on a strainer plate to harden.

Use white fondant to cover the whole cake.

Now use a new pastry bag to mix the whipped cream with red, yellow, black and blue (separately).

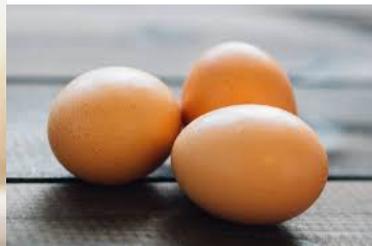

Decorate the cake red, yellow and blue: this is for the unicorn hair.

Use black mixed whipped cream to make the eyes.

Get a small packet of fondant, cut it in half and form into snakes and then twist them together. This is the horn. Paint it with the edible gold paint.

FINALLY ENJOY

Double chocolate cake with Maltesers

Ingredients for 9/12 persons

Ingredients

For the black chocolate cake:

- 50 g black chocolate
- 50 g butter
- 50g sugar
- 2 eggs
- 50 g flour
- 2g yeast

For the white cake:

- 50 g white chocolate
- 50g butter
- 50 g sugar
- 2 eggs
- 50 g flour
- 2g yeast

For covering:

- 1 teaspoon of vanilla extract
- 500ml cream
- 350g chocolate with milk
- 2 teaspoon of icing sugar
- To your liking of Maltesers for decorating

Preparation

Of the white and black chocolate cake.

1. Heat the oven to 170 ° C, butter a mould, and sprinkle with flour. Melt black chocolate and butter in a bain-marie or microwave, a minute or two at half power, and reserve.
2. Whiten the eggs with the sugar in a food processor. Add the melted chocolate and butter, and also the vanilla extract. Add the previously sieved flour a couple of times with the yeast, and mix it with a spatula.
3. Pour the dough into the mould and bake for 15 or 25 minutes, or until the tip of a cupcake thermometer turns red.
4. Remove from the oven, let it stand for 15 minutes, unmould and put the cake on a rack to cool.
5. Repeat the same process with the ingredients of the white chocolate sponge cake and, once baked and let it cool on a rack.
6. Put the sugar and the cream in a saucepan. Heat it until the thermometer reaches 87° C at most.
7. Put the milk chocolate in a bowl and pour in the hot cream. Let it rest for about five minutes so that the chocolate melts and mix carefully until you get a cream of a homogeneous color.
8. Let it cool to room temperature, cover with a cloth and store in the refrigerator for 12 hours.
9. The next day we prepare the cream with a kitchen robot, being careful not to pass so that no butter is made.

To assemble the cake:

1. Place the black chocolate cake on a rotating base, cover with a little cream and place the white chocolate cake on top.
2. Cover the entire surface and edges with the milk chocolate cream.
3. Decorate the cake by filling it with Maltesers starting at the edge and ending at the center of the surface.
4. We keep it in the fridge until we go to serve it.

Enjoy your meal!

Interview with Patrick

By Nerea de Gracia and Laia Montaña

N: Can we ask you some questions?

P: Ok, sure. Go ahead.

N: What do you like about Christmas?

P: What I like about Christmas is seeing my family and seeing my friends.

N: Do you put up a Christmas tree?

P: Yes, usually quite late, so my family usually put up a Christmas tree on the 23rd or the 24th of December, so one or two days before Christmas day.

L: What presents would you like to get?

P: I don't know, it's quite difficult, because I live here and at Christmas I will be in Wales with my family, but it's difficult to bring the things back here, because I'll be on a plane and I only have a small suitcase, so I don't know the answer.

L: How do you celebrate Christmas in Wales?

P: Well, we have Christmas trees and presents and usually you wake up on Christmas day, on the 25th of December, and you have some presents in a stocking, which is a long sock and then you spend the day with your family: maybe you go for a walk (that's what I do), and then afterwards you have a big meal, Christmas dinner, which is a roast dinner with turkey or duck or some nice meat. And then you open the rest of your presents. So, that's Christmas day.

L: Where would you like to celebrate Christmas?

P: In my hometown, the town where I'm from, which is called Prestatyn. So, that's where I go for Christmas, it's nice.

L: Thank you!

P: You're welcome!
